Appendix No. 1 to Dean's Directive No. 3/2025 Study in doctoral study programmes from the 2025/26 academic year

Study Plan for the Applied Economics and Administration Study Programme for students who commenced their studies in the 2025/26 academic year

Study Plan

1. Compulsory courses (15 credits per course):

Economics and Regulation

Research methods

2. Compulsory elective courses (10 credits per course; students must select 4 courses):

Behavioral economics

Management of Public Services

Governance in EU and National States

Society, Ethics and the Environment

Harm and Restoration in the Inst. Context

Spatial Planning and Governance

3. Elective courses:

A student may select a maximum of one additional course offered at UJEP or another higher education institution in the Czech Republic or abroad, which supplements and deepens the knowledge and skills relevant to the student's field of specialisation and dissertation.

A maximum of 5 credits may be earned for an elective course within the ISP.